

Bill Mollison and Geoff Lawton

combine forces to teach the

PERMACULTURE DESIGN CERTIFICATE COURSE

Monday, 17 September through to Saturday, 29 September 2012 at Trinity College, Melbourne University

Earth's ecosystems are in crisis. Permaculture offers practical, sustainable solutions. You can be part of the exciting adventure of positive world change.

"This course has already changed a lot of the world — Come help us finish the job!"

Bill Mollison

BILL MOLLISON, the legendary Permaculture teacher, promoter and designer—who, for 35 years of travelling, designing, teaching and writing (most recently in Istanbul and Jordan), has personally planted the seeds of Permaculture in over 120 countries. Bill is the founding Director of The Permaculture Institute, the first and longest running Permaculture Institute in existence.

GEOFF LAWTON is world renowned for field expertise and extensive teaching experience in the ecological "badlands" of Earth, areas of extreme cultural conflicts, as well as more friendly environments. Founding Director of the far reaching Permaculture Research Institute. Geoff is working in more countries and co-ordinating more projects on the ground than any other Permaculture teacher or designer today.