

Introduction to Permaculture Course

Introduction to Permaculture Course

LEARN THE SKILLS, TECHNIQUES AND STRATEGIES FOR ADAPTING TO CLIMATE CHANGE AND THE RISING COST OF LIVING

*two days theory and one day practical with
David Spicer,
Project Manager
for
The Permaculture
Institute,
Sisters Creek,
Tasmania*

31 Rulla Road, Sisters Creek, Tasmania

Tuesday, March 10, Wednesday, March 11 and Thursday, March 12, 2009

Morning and afternoon teas included in the $150.00 AUD course fee, BYO lunch.

Introduction to Permaculture Course

Course will include:

- Permaculture overview
- Basic design
- Water harvesting
- Retro-fitting houses
- Garden styles/propagation
- Worm farm and composting
- Animal forage systems
- Food forests

and more...

Will also cover in brief:

- How to form a permaculture group
- The re-localisation movement
- Community supported agriculture

31 Rulla Road, Sisters Creek, Tasmania

Enquiries and bookings call mobile 0458 694 820

Book now to secure your place